Good Thinking™
BRUNEL DESIGN 04

The directory to accompany Good Thinking : Brunel Design 04 was the largest and most ambitious in Brunel's history, with 160 pages in a portrait format. Designed and edited by a student team to very strict deadlines, and printed by The Nuffield Press, Abingdon, the directory has served as both a promotional tool for the graduating students and the university, and as an educational resource for schools and colleges around the country, including Grosvenor Grammar School in Belfast (who have a class set, used as textbooks) and Feltham Community College in Middlesex (where a presentation based on the directory provides inspiration for the next generation of designers). ISBN 190231641X — or see the directory online at www.goodthinking.org.uk
